DIVISION OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULES [29]

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES FILES, 1973-[ongoing]

25 microfiche boxes and 120 microfilm reels

DESCRIPTION: These files are the official copies of the administrative rules/proposals filed in accordance with the Administrative Rulemaking Act (UCA 63-46A {2000}). A rule is an agency's written statement that 1) is explicitly or implicitly required by state or federal statute, or other applicable law; 2) has the effect of law; 3) implements or interprets a state or federal legal mandate; and 4) applies to a class of persons or another agency.

This series includes a printout of the Rules Analysis form which records agency information, purpose, cost impact, comment period, effective date, status of action being taken (new, amended, repealed, repealed and enacted, 5 year review, or 120 day emergency rule), a copy of the rule text with underlining and strikeout to show when text has been added to or deleted from an existing rule, and a notice of effective date showing when, if ever, the rule was made effective. Files may also contain correspondence, petitions, or notes made or received by the Division of Administrative Rules regarding the filing.

In 1994 agencies began filing rules electronically using e-mail to send WordPerfect format rule filings to the Division. The rule file contains a printout of the filing as received by the Division, a version edited by the Division and, when applicable, the final published version. The final published version is the only rule draft retained when the files are weeded prior to microfilming.

Prior to 1985, this series was created by the State Archives and Records Service.

ARRANGEMENT: These files are arranged by filming type, thereunder numerically by file number. File numbers are assigned roughly chronologically by date of filing.

RESEARCH NOTE: The arrangement of this series may require the researcher to check both the film and fiche formats for the case file of interest to them. Case number spans for each reel of film and each box of fiche are detailed in the container list.

RELATED RECORDS: All current rules are made part of series 83623, UTAH ADMINISTRATIVE CODE. Series 83311, UTAH STATE BULLETIN, is the published resource for proposed rules, temporary rules, rules under review, and the effective dates of rules listed as proposed in previous issues. Series 23021, NONSUBSTANTIVE RULE CHANGE FILES, are the administrative rules files for those rules changes filed between 1987 and 1989 which do not change the meaning or requirements of the rule as it was written at the time. For other time frames, these nonsubstantive change filings are included in these ADMINISTRATIVE RULES FILES. Series 84327, RULES FILINGS REGISTER, is a numerical listing of the filings which includes the dates of activities on the file, the name of the agency filing, and the title of the rule.

PROCESSING NOTE: This series was processed by A B Schmuland in January 2001. This is a continuing series and new additions to the series are transferred to the Archives upon filming. Paper copies of the series are destroyed upon filming.

PREFERRED CITATION: Cite the Utah State Archives and Records Service, the creating agency name, the series title, and the series number.
